ELI OPENSHAW.

We delight when an opportunity comes legitimately for us to speak of the above named, honest and honored gentleman. It is a duty to do it in this case. Here is a man who for two years has filled one of the most responsible and important offices in the county, and who has filled it well, acceptably to his party and to the taxpayers of Utah county, or else be never would have received a renomination by accla mation. The Enquirer has reviled him all through his term and with the resuit we have named above: renomination, and we doubt not re-election triumphantly. This generally follows to those whom it reviles, but to this man it would have come without such assistfaithfulness fairly won re-election that it now by a d-ned sight. man is surely Mr. Levi Openshaw. We hope to see him re-elected by a very handsome majority and not for one moment have we doubted that he fond of paralelle and The Disparce

For entire accuracy, we will put his books against any collector's in Utah. Nor will the people soon forget his generous forebears ance with the poorer tax payers of the county. At a time of universal financial distress this humane and kindly-beared officer extended every indulgence consistent with the good of the county will be fortunate if all her officers, in the future, are fashioned upon such modeis as Openshaw. We glory over the record he has made and this is the way the home in Santaquin Mr. Openshaw's word is as good as a bond. It is a good sign when one's closest neighbors home and respect him. This is the entire county feels about it. At his home in Santaquin Mr. Openshaw's word is as good as a bond. It is a good sign when one's closest neighbors home on the role holds grandly good in this case.

He is a true man, a sound democrat and if he is elected. which he is sme to be the party will never be called upon to blush for act of his, either official or otherwise. We can promise him that he will poll every democratic vote in Provo precinct and several republican votes that we know

His term as deputy sheriff has only added to his general popularity, broadened his acquaintance with the people of the county and added to his fitness for the assessorship. He is a frank honest, outspoken man who sees his duty and goes for it then and there, nor counts the fees who intervene. He is another evidence of the wisdom of our late county convention. He is one of the good mer whom it gave us to vote for and we, the people, mean to do it to a man.

A FEW years since the Tribune wrote feelingly and in a complimentary way of one Jessich Rawlins, a young man of promise. Time has moved on and that young man has mounted from one excellence to another with amazing rapidity and atways with honor, integrity and true patriotism. Not one act remotely resembling dishonor has ever been charged to him. He has attained a national reputation since then. None stand before him as a practical states man, a patriot and a leading western influence of the better order, yet we have this same Tribune fighting this same Rawlins as bitterly as if the latter had turned pick-pocket or on October 4th, at Salt Lake city, in something worse. What is remarkable the Utah Exposition building, comabout the case is Rawlins has not changed his politics, religion or anything else in the least.

The people of the south begin to want something solid instead of pretty, something earnest, instead of clownish. We promise them both this week when Jo Rawlins and B. H. Roberts go down among them. The southern tour of Mr. Cannon and our pious bishop has been provocative of fun and weak theatricals but the vote harvest for them will
